Hello Everyone,

This is the weekend that any ideas about summer still being around leave my foolish head. We set clocks back an hour Sunday morning. I can hear shots from deer hunters while I'm walking my dogs most evenings. Hunters' Breakfasts are all around. On Tuesday we vote (at the town hall) on whether we'd like to have more casinos in the state and whether or not we should be allowed to continue with same day registration for voting. And it's my sister's birthday - Happy Birthday Nada! When I walk the dogs next week, I'll be thinking of winter. Have a great weekend!

-Allen Cole

-Thanks to the middle school students for visiting the Nursing Home every week!
-Thanks to Lindsey Hardison and the rest of the staff at the Nursing Home for allowing us to traipse through on Halloween and for all the great treats!
-Thanks to all the folks, and especially Mrs. Tanguay, who volunteered their time to make the Halloween Parade and Fair a great success!
